PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Results-driven funnel builder and paid ads specialist with hands-on experience across the full customer acquisition pipeline — from Meta ad campaigns to high-converting funnels, checkout optimization, and automated email/SMS nurture sequences. Former aircraft maintenance technician who brings aviation-grade precision and systematic problem-solving to every project. Proven ability to manage end-to-end e-commerce operations, CRO experiments, and marketing automation for both local brands and international e-commerce companies. Looking to bring measurable growth to a team that values execution over theory.

EXPERIENCE

Funnel Builder & Paid Ads Specialist

2024 – Present

GRW Brands — Swedish E-commerce Brand (Remote)

Aviation training background — maintenance, inspection, and regulatory compliance

WHY ME

I've maintained aircraft where one mistake can be catastrophic — that's the level of precision I bring to building funnels and running ad campaigns. I don't just set things up, I optimize, test, and iterate until the numbers work. I've worked with international brands, local businesses, and startups. I ship fast, communicate clearly, and care about results over busywork. If you need someone who treats your ad spend like it matters — let's talk.
